THE LUTEBOOK OF WOLFF CHRISTIAN VON HARLING, Jena, c 1618 with introduction and concordances by Joachim Ludtke

Wolff Christian von Harling was a nobleman from a family with an ancestral seat in Eversen (Lower Saxony, Germany). He entered the protestant convent of St. Michael's in Luneburg at an early age and lived there until his death during an epidemic in 1639. His lute book, the work of several hands, has been written during his years at the Jena university where von Harling studied from on 1618.

This manuscript contains attractive music which is well in the reach of the intermediate lute player. Its repertoire consists mainly of dances of French provenance, some of them clearly based on the four-voice versions of Michael Praetorius' Terpsichore. English music - sometimes with German titles - features with several popular pieces, e.g. The hunt's up, and versions of John Dowland's Battle Galliard and Frog Galliard. Germany contributes a number of song settings, a group of Lutheran chorales and other pieces.

With the book comes a CD ROM showing photographic impressions of the elaborated gables of the brick houses in the city of Luneburg, where von Harling once lived. French Tablature/ Renaissance tuning/ Hard bound/ Golden spine.

GIULIO CESARE BARBETTA (c 1540 - c 1602): COLLECTED LUTE MUSIC edited by Gian

Luca Lastraioli

Despite the fact that Giulio Cesare Barbetta was one of the most important lutenists of the second half of the Italian Cinquecento, very little is known about his life. Barbetta was certainly born in Padua (the title pages of his publications always refer to him as "Padoano" or "Padovano") possibly around the year 1540, while 1603 (the year of publication of his last work - Intavolatura di liuto delle canzonette) is the post quem date for his death.

Barbetta's books present all the typical genres of the lute music of the second half of the Italian Cinquecento: preambuli, fantasias, intabulations of Italian madrigals and French chansons, pavanas and paduanas, passemazzi and galliards (sometimes paired in the form of a two piece suite), balletti, moresche, saltarelli, dance pieces for two lutes, arie to be used for singing stanzas and verses of every kind ("strophes and verses of every kind"), and canzonette.

All the lute books published by Barbetta were printed in Italian tablature. For the present edition all the pieces have been transcribed into French tablature. All the original right hand fingering marks have been left unaltered in the transcriptions, as they represent a precious indication for today's performers about phrasing. The present edition contains 130 solo pieces for seven course lute and four duet pieces.

Text in English. 4 lute books in one volume.

ERNST GOTTLIEB BARON: COLLECTED WORKS edited by Jan

W.J. Burgers

The music of Ernst Gottlieb Baron (1696-1760), lutenist to King Frederick the Great of Prussia, has until now not been given the attention it deserves. In Germany during his lifetime Baron was regarded as one of the most outstanding virtuosos of the lute, and leading critics ranked him among the best composers of the nation. The modern neglect he has suffered was caused perhaps by the fact that most of his music seems to have been lost, and that the works, which have survived, are probably his less demanding ones, aimed at the amateur players. It is clear, however, that these tuneful and relatively easy pieces should be a welcome addition to the repertory of today 's lutenist, amateur as well as professional. Moreover, Baron's ensemble works, mostly lute trios, are more ambitious than his lute solos and surely deserve more attention than is the case at present. It is hoped that these books, in which all of the surviving works of this lutenist have been collected, will help to revive the interest in Baron's art.

The complete edition includes introduction dealing with Cutting's life, works and musical style full critical commentary

This magnificent lute book from the Leipzig Music Library comprises 347 lute pieces on 474 pages (!) and is here published for the first time.

From the point of music this is one of the most beautiful collections of Lute pieces I have ever seen. It is my absolute favorite! For better legibility the pages have been enlarged somewhat; for convenience the facsimile edition has been divided into two handsome volumes.

Pieces by Mercure, DuFaut, Strobel, Pinel, Gautier, Dubut, Gumprecht, Gallot, and many anonymous, extremely beautiful pieces, being NOT difficult to play! French tablature/ Baroque tuning/ 2 volumes £ 35.0

DIETRICH BUXTEHUDE: SUITE BuxWV 236 edited by Wilfred Foxe

The cembalo suite transcribed here is probably Buxtehude's most popular work in the genre and its four movements adhere to the Allemande-Courante-SarabandeGigue pattern of the classical suite in much the same way as the keyboard works of Froberger or the lute works of Esaias Reusner the younger.

The GOESS Tablature Collection Music for Lute/ Viol / Archlute/ Baroque Guitar

The GOESS LUTE AND VIOL MANUSCRIPTS of Schloss Ebenthal

In 1979 the American scholar, Douglas Alton Smith, visited the GOESS family seat, Schloss Ebenthal, near Klagenfurt in the southern Austrian province of Carinthia expecting to find a single lute book; eventually no fewer than 13 tablature manuscripts from the 17th and 18th century were discovered on the shelves. They had apparently all belonged to the family from their compilation, and thus constitute a unique and priceless record of several generations of musical activity in a distinguished Austrian noble household. Douglas Smith arranged the photographing of the manuscripts by Albert Reyerman and others and reported the discovery in an article discussing the manuscripts and their family background (EARLY MUSIC, October 1982, pp.462-7).

The three viol tablatures were catalogued from these films by Gordon Dodd in England, and in 1986 Albert Reyerman visited Schloss Ebenthal again, this time together with Tim Crawford, in order to carry out a more detailed examination of the manuscripts. Albert Reyerman of TREE EDITION was allowed to take all manuscripts home to Munich in Germany, where he had the equipment to make full size reproductions of every single page of the manuscripts, in total nearly 1000 pages of outstanding music.
